Enter reasons here:	Contributing to the education and betterment of the professional community is important to me. I have been involved in a number of different organizations over the years and really appreciate the collegiality of NAFER members and the shared desire of its members to help each other succeed in their professions. Although I have been an insolvency lawyer for over 20 years, I am relatively new to federal equity receiverships. NAFER and its members have been critical to helping me learn the ropes, and I want to be a part of the effort to further that mission to help educate current members and to bring new members into the fold and to help foster NAFER's diversification efforts.
Enter NAFER efforts here:	This year, I am serving with Geoff Winkler as co-chair of the NAFER annual conference. I served on the conference planning committee in 2020 and participated on a panel.
Enter receivership efforts here:	I am relatively new to federal equity receiverships compared to others in this group, but after joining NAFER, I immediately raised my hand to become more involved because it was apparent how much this organization offers to its members. Although new to NAFER, it is important to me to not just be a member of an organization but to help contribute to it. The best way to do that is to volunteer to be one of its leaders, which is why I volunteered early on. I have demonstrated my desire to contribute by being part of last year's conference planning process and by co-chairing this year's conference.
Enter professional efforts here:	My training is as an insolvency lawyer and, in that capacity, I have led a number of different organizations. I am currently serving on the Executive Committee of the Business Law Section of the California Lawyers Association and as a director of the Los Angeles Bankruptcy Forum and the International Women's Insolvency and Restructuring Confederation. I have served as the president of the Orange County Bankruptcy Forum and the Commercial Law & Bankruptcy Section of the Orange County Bar Association. I have chaired a couple of conferences, served on a number of different committees and boards, and been a part of a number of different education panels.

Although new to NAFER, I recognize its importance to the field of federal equity receiverships and want to be part of the mission to bring in newer members and to diversify our ranks. I think I bring a fresh set of eyes to the organization to help it accomplish these goals.

Enter reasons here:	As a former regulator, a transactional lawyer and an MBA, my perspectives often bridge the gap between rigid technical analysis and pragmatic solutions. I will contribute the ability to consider the business and legal implications. Further, as one of the few Hispanic members, my active participation is demonstrative of NAFER's diverse composition.
Enter NAFER efforts here:	I've been involved with NAFER since its early days. I am a founding member of Newsletter Committee and launched The Receiver's initial issues; served on the Regulatory Outreach Committee; was a panelist in the 2019 Regional Education Series in Dallas; hosted the 2020 International Conference in Miami; and am currently the Co-Chair of the Regional Conference Committee.
Enter receivership efforts here:	In 2021, we launched the receiver's Huddle in order to promote informal communications among NAFER's members and deliver additional value during the pandemic. The 2019 Education Series with Judge Boyle, & Charlene Koonce went a long way towards debunking some myths and negative stereotypes.
Enter professional efforts here:	I believe we stand on the shoulders of those who came before us. Socially, technologically, economically, intellectually,... -- progress is a continuum. I support my profession by encouraging access, developing talent, and mentoring the next generation. In that regards, I am a Board Member of the Dallas Hispanic Bar Foundation, a 501(c)(3) organization committed to the advancement of Hispanics in the legal profession. Since its founding in 2006, the Foundation has awarded over $450,000 in scholarships and internships to Hispanic law students and in grants to Hispanic high school and college students with interest in the law.
Enter other items here:	An active member since NAFER initial meeting in Ft. Worth; I've heard grumblings about the lack of diversity in our ranks. NAFER is diverse, but need to promote it internally and reflect it externally. We have excellent talent within NAFER, but we need to: involve the next generation in our cases; train them; and develop successors with the benefit of our experience and who don't have to repeat past mistakes to learn the same lessons.

Enter reasons here:	Ever since I joined NAFER shortly after its creation, I've tried to play whatever role I could in furthering its mission and increasing its reach. I did this because I believe it is an essential organization for the Receivership world and I want others to get the same benefit I have been fortunate to get. From serving on committees, to moderating and speaking on panels, to coordinating a regional event, I've put a significant amount of time and resources into trying to make this the best organization possible for the members. I believe serving as a Director will help me continue and further this goal and also continue to increase NAFER's reach and reputation.
